NEW MINISTRY ORTAINS ASCENDIANCY IN SPAIN

Opposition Element Organizes Cabinet Within Few Hours After Forcing Resignation of Clerical Leader, Maura.

EXECUTION OF FERRER PRECIPITATED CRISIS

Progressive Policy Outlined by New Premier and Change May Lead to Complete Downfall of Party Which Has Put Empire in Disgrace Will Publish Papers in Ferrer Case.

MADRID, Oct. 21.—The Spanish cabinet, formed January 25, 1907, under the premiership of Antonio Maura, resigned today as a result of bitter attacks made against the government by the former premier, Moret Y. Prendergast, representing a powerful opposition.

At a conference Premier Maura told the king that, in face of Senor Moret's statement that the opposition would refuse to discuss even the most urgent measures, he had no option but to resign. He asked, however, that members of the majority support the new ministry.

After the resignation, Moret Y. Prendergast undertook to form a new ministry, himself assuming the post of premier and minister of the interior.

The new ministers, who took the oath of office tonight, follow:

Premier and minister of the interior—Moret Y Prendergast.

Minister of foreign affairs Perez Caballero

Minister of finance—Senor Alvarado.

Minister of war—Lieutenant General De Luque.

Minister of marine Rear Admiral Concas

Minister of public works Senor Gasset.

Minister of public instruction Senor Barroso.

Minister of justice—Martinez Del Campo

When the president of the chamber of deputies announced the cabinet's resignation, it was received with such an uproar that he was forced to adjourn the sitting

Don FRANCISCO FERRER,

Whose Execution Has Led to Overthrow of Maura Regime in Spain

It is understood that the new government's plan includes the re-establishment of constitutional guarantees in Barcelona and Genoa the suppression of the censorship a moderation of the campaign in the Riff region, amnesty for political offenses the publication of documents in the Ferrer case, and the holding of elections within a few months

It is believed that one of the first acts of the government will be to replace General Marina, commander of the Spanish forces in Morocco by General Weyler

The Spanish cabinet that resigned this afternoon was composed of the following ministers

Premier—Senor Maura, foreign affairs, Senor Allendesalazar, justice, Marquis de Figueroa, finance, Senor Besado; interior, Senor de La Cierva; war, General Linares, marine, Senor Ferandiz; agriculture, commerce and public works, Senor Sanches Guerra; education, Senor Rodriguezian San Pedro.

Clerical Victory

Preceding the formation of this cabinet, there had been five Liberal ministries in 18 months. The religious issues had been the rock on which these ministries were wrecked and the accession to power of Senor Maura, who had before held the premiership, was regarded as a sweeping victory for the clericals and likely to arouse a revolutionary spirit. This proves to be the case, the opposition finally uniting against the government's conduct and furtherance of the war in Morocco.

The stern measures taken to put down the recent antiwar demonstrations in Spain tended to inflame the

FINANCIAL FLURRY

American Speculation Assigned as Reason for Highest Foreign Rate Since Panic.

LONDON, Oct 22—Financial writers in London morning newspapers for the most part consider the Bank of England's action in raising the discount rate as a warning to Wall Street speculators The Standard questions whether a 5 per cent rate will suffice.

LONDON Oct 21—The Bank of England today raised its maximum rate of discount another full point, to 5 per cent, the highest it has stood since the American flurry of 1907. This is the third consecutive week that the directors have considered it necessary to strengthen the barriers against a further leakage of gold reserve

BERLIN Oct 21—The action of the Bank of England in raising its discount rate today took Berlin by surprise Financiers in discussing the increased rate assign American speculation and demand for money as the chief cause A steady rise in the English check rate in the last few days has already raised the fear that the gold export point will be reached soon In that event another advance by the Imperial German bank is regarded as certain

"TWO SOULS WITH BUT A SINGLE THOUGHT."

CAUSE ICE SHORTAGE TO FORCE PRICES UP

VICIOUS METHODS CHARGED BY PROSECUTION.

State Action Against American Ice Company, Morse Enterprise, Put on Trial.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21—Prosecution of the American Ice company, the largest dealer in ice in the world, for alleged violation of the state antimonopoly law, was begun in the criminal branch of the supreme court today. Deputy Attorney General Roger Clarke, in his address, declared that "everything short of physical violence which the diabolical ingenuity of man could invent was employed by this corporation to build up a monopoly of the ice business."

He said the American Ice company had repeatedly refused to harvest ice in its Maine fields to create a scarcity and to raise the price in New York. The idea of the organization of the combine, he continued, originated with Charles W. Morse.

Deputy Attorney General Osborne read to the jury the certificate of incorporation of the company in New Jersey, wherein the capitalization was fixed at $60,000,000, each of the five incorporators subscribing for only 40 shares The capitalization was later reduced to $40,000,000

John R. Bennett, one of the incorporators, was called as the first witness He admitted that out of the $40,000,000 capitalization of the American Ice company $20,000,000 had been exchanged share for share for stock in the Knickerbocker and Consolidated ice companies and about $10,000,000 for other ice companies' properties

LARGEST CROWDS IN HISTORY OF FRISCO

City and Visitors Go "Carnival Mad."—Imposing Parade Feature Yesterday

SAN FRANCISCO Oct 21—San Francisco and all her guests went carnival mad today and crowds still surged up and down the streets after the decorative illuminations were extinguished tonight

Never before has this city entertained such a huge crowd as gathered to see the big civic and industrial parade the leading feature of the day More than 50,000 people marched for three hours

For a time gloom spread over the merrymakers when it was reported that Don Gaspar de Portola had been thrown from his horse and injured, but this feeling turned to admiring elation when it was learned that the superb horsemanship of the courtly Spaniard had enabled him to escape without serious injury

The military and fraternal sections of the parade were much the same as those seen in similar affairs, but the International section was distinctive Two thousand Chinese, dressed in picturesque costumes followed the Japanese who escorted a large float representing the cherry festival

The chief event tonight was the masked ball at the Auditorium Don Gaspar and Queen Vargilia led the grand march

Resolutions Demand Abolition of Banking Board and Return of Guaranty Fund.

TULSA Okla. Oct 21—With but one dissenting vote the members of group four of the state bankers' section, representing 60 banks in the eastern part of the state, in a meeting here today, denounced the state banking board for its methods in dealing with the affairs of the Columbia Bank and Trust company of Oklahoma City They also demanded that the state bank examiner issue a statement regarding the condition of the bank The guarantee law was declared a failure

The resolutions also recommended that the state banking board, as it now exists, be abolished, and that the guaranty fund be redeposited with banks from which it originated and no interest be paid by banks while depositing with them

WASHINGTON, Oct 21—The story of a first change in sentiment toward the guarantee bank system of Oklahoma was told in a brief announcement at the treasury department today

Today the treasury approved application to convert a state bank of Oklahoma into a national institution The institution seeking the conversion was the Farmers State bank of Oklahoma City with a capital of $100,000 Its new name is the Farmers National bank of Oklahoma City

RYE BREAD EASILY DIGESTED.

Rye differs as much from wheat as does corn. It contains nearly the same minerals, but its starch is more easily digested than any other except rice starch. Hence rye bread is better able to wheat, if it can be made light. But its starch is so easily digested that it masses and fails to rise as wheat flour does Hence, it is necessary to mix a little corn meal with rye. The best bread is that made from a combination of the cereals wheat, rye and corn. The kind bread so largely used by the hardy peasantry of Europe half a century ago was rye bread, the extensive cultivation of wheat in western Europe for bread-making being of comparatively recent date

$50,000,000 A YEAR FOR WATERWAY FUND

SEN. NEWLANDS ADDRESSES CONGRESSMEN.

Says Arid and Semiarid States Should Profit from Waterways Movement.

RENO, Nev, Oct. 21.—Senator Newlands has addressed a letter to senators from the arid and semiarid states calling their attention to the waterways movement for the development of navigation, which is to be emphasized by the presence of the presidents at the Deep Waterways convention at New Orleans, October 30, and to the importance of the senators and representatives from the arid and semiarid states conferring in their region.

He calls attention to the importance of comprehensive plans that will cover contemporaneous development of the rivers in every section of the country and particularly in the arid region where the storage of flood waters can be made useful both for irrigation and navigation in the maintenance of a steadier stream flow

He urges the creation of a waterway fund of $50,000,000 annually and shows that of this amount headwaters of the navigable rivers in the arid regions should receive about $5,000,000 annually, which, in addition to the reclamation fund will take care of unfinished as well as contemplated irrigation projects

This movement contemplates a conference of senators and representatives from 15 states west of the Missouri at the beginning of the next session of Congress with a view to making the arid region a factor in waterways development

DEAD MAN POSED AS "DIVINE HEALER" SCHLATTER

Discovery of Body Raises Question Whether Strange Character Died in Desert.

IDENTITY NOT PROVED

Healer Reported Dead 12 Years Ago, May Have Been Charles McLean.

HASTINGS, Neb, Oct. 21.—The mystery surrounding the death of the man claiming to be Francis Schlatter, who was found dead in a hotel here today, was partially cleared tonight by the discovery of a family album containing a picture of the dead man taken in 1871. This was inscribed Dr. Charles McLean A note was also found naming David McNaughton of Chicago as the custodian of his effects.

His literature and advertising circulars declare him to be "Francis Schlatter, divine healer." A receipt for an envelope deposited with the Bay State Trust company of Boston was also found This was placed in the care of the company last February. For three weeks the man had been kept at the expense of the city He claimed he was the original healer who appeared in Denver and he averred that he caused the report to be spread abroad that he had perished in the desert.

He undertook to cure by divine healing in several Nebraska towns last summer.

Pictures, newspaper cuts and magazine illustrations seem to indicate that he is the same man who caused a sensation in Denver several years ago.

OMAHA, Neb, Oct 21—Persons here who saw Francis Schlatter in Denver in 1895, and who have recently seen the man whose death is reported from Hastings declare positively they were not the same Copyrighted photographs of the original Francis Schlatter, known to be authentic, bear out this judgment

It is also said their methods were entirely dissimilar. The Schlatter of 1895 spurned money, and when it was urged upon him, immediately distributed it among those who seemed to need it

He was a native of Alsace-Lorraine,

ROOSEVELT'S STORY STARTS WITH THRILLS

Ex-President, in First Published Narrative of Trip, Tells of Lion Hunt.

COLD LEAD SAVED HIM

Companion Strangled Ferocious Leopard to Death With His Bare Hands.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21—Theodore Roosevelt writing in the November number of Scribner's magazine, gives his impressions and experiences on an East African ranch, which in many ways reminded him of early days on the plains of the great west and then plunges directly into an account of his first encounters with big African game.

"The dangerous game of Africa he says, 'are the lion buffalo elephant, rhinoceros and leopard The hunter who follows any of these animals always does so at a certain risk of life or limb, a risk which it is his business to minimize by coolness, caution, good judgment and straight shooting. The leopard is, in point of pluck and ferocity, more than the equal of the other four, but his small size always renders it likely that he will merely maul, and not kill, a man.

"My friend, Carl Akely of Chicago, actually killed barehanded, a leopard which sprang on him He had already wounded the beast twice, crippling it in one front and one hind paw, whereupon it charged, followed him as he tried to dodge the charge, and struck him full just as he turned It hit him on one arm, biting again and again as it worked up the arm from the wrist to the elbow, but Akely threw it, holding its throat with the other hand, flinging its body to one side

It luckily fell on its side with its two wounded legs uppermost so that it would not tear him He fell forward with it and crushed in its chest with his knees until he distinctly felt one of its ribs crack, this, said Akely, was the first moment when he felt he might conquer. Redoubling his efforts with knees and hands he actually choked and crushed the life out of it although his arm was badly bitten

Mr Roosevelt devotes much space to telling how he brought to bay and finally killed a lion The description begins at a point where the hunter is standing beside his mount considering what he shall do if the lion charges and can not be stopped by a well directed shot The writer continues

'Now, an elderly man with a varied past, which included rheumatism, does not vault lightly into the saddle as his sons for instance, can, and I had already made up my mind that in the event of the lion's charging it would be wise for me to trust to straight powder rather than to try to scramble into the saddle and get under way in time.

'I could still not see the lion when I knelt, but he was now standing up, looking first at one group of horses and then at the other, his tail lashing to and fro, his head held low and his lips dropped over his mouth in peculiar fashion, while his harsh and savage growling rolled thunderously over the plain Seeing Simba and me on foot, he turned toward us, his tail lashing quicker and quicker

Resting my elbow on Simba's bent shoulder I took steady aim and pressed the trigger the bullet went in between the neck and shoulder, and the lion fell over on his side, one foreleg in the air. He recovered in a moment, and stood up, evidently very sick, and once more faced me, growling hoarsely. I think

LORD HAS BEEN GOOD TO TEXAS, SAYS PRESIDENT TAFT IN SCHOOL HOUSE SPEECH

GREGORY, Tex. Oct. 21—President Taft had his education as a ranchman further enhanced today by another afternoon of sightseeing on the practical side of things

The President motored over to Taft, 11 miles, to visit the town, which gave him its unanimous vote in the election In the school house there he made a little speech of thanks and congratulation to his brother's farm hands.

On his way to Taft the President stopped at the cotton gin and watched its operation with much interest He saw for the first time a steam plow at work in the fields Next he was taken to the creamery where he ate a dish of ice cream. He had a look at the abbattoir, which was not in use

In the morning the President played 18 holes of golf with Robert Conderly of Austin reputed champion of Texas, who laid out the links on the Taft farm The President invited Mr. Conderly down "to get a beating" but the young Texan led his distinguished opponent from the first hole

Tomorrow the President will break into his four days vacation long enough to go over to Corpus Christi on the revenue cutter Windom to speak before the Inland Waterways association

The President was given a great cheer as he arose to speak in the school house He said

I am glad to be here under the fraternal auspices of my brother and his wife I have heard of his ranch for a good many years I heard of it from Mr David Sinton Mrs Taft's father who offered me the job once if I could make any better living of coming down on his ranch and naming the calves, and while it seemed to be a work that would probably take all my time, the amount earned per calf did not seem to be enough to be attractive It is a pleasure to be here and see you looking so strong and healthy and hear your contented voices, yes sir

Is there anybody who is kicking? I don't think you would have him in the community if he did Certainly the Lord has been good to this part of the country The opportunity for development here seems to be unlimited The air and this land run on without a hill and without anything to interfere with your outlook I should think you would get a little tired looking over into the next pasture This place however is only like a great many others

This country seems to be taking on a new development with reference to agricultural products necessary to feed the

THE GREAT FIGHT AGAINST TUBERCULOSIS IS BEING WON, CENSUS FIGURES SHOW

WASHINGTON, Oct 21—The great fight against tuberculosis is being won according to Chief Statistician Cressy L Wilbur of the division of vital statistics, United States census bureau. In a bulletin issued today, based on the annual returns of deaths from the death registration area of the United States he says

It is probable that the great attention that has been given this disease through the international congress on tuberculosis held at Washington in 1908 and the organization of many state and local societies has already begun to have its effect upon the mortality from this disease and a continued decline in death rate from it from year to year may be expected

The total number of deaths from all forms of tuberculosis returned in 1908 was 73,289 exceeding those of any previous year of registration, but the death rate per 100,000 for 1908 is considerably less than that for 1907 In all registration states the deaths from tuberculosis showed a decline except in Colorado Rhode Island and Vermont.

Each of the following causes was responsible for at least 5,000 deaths of male bread winners in the year

Typhoid fever tuberculosis of lungs, cancer, apoplexy and paralysis, heart disease pneumonia Bright's disease, suicide, accident The total number of deaths of occupied persons from these causes was, for males, 138,258, and for females, 17,484

Of the deaths of occupied males 20,443, or 15 per cent, were due to tuberculosis of the lungs and, of occupied females, 3,511, or 21 per cent, were due to the same cause

In the registration area in 1900-1909 deaths out of every 100 deaths of occupied males who died between the ages of 25 and 34 years were caused by tuberculosis of the lungs, or nearly one death out of every three. During the same age period 41.9 per cent of bookkeepers, clerks and copyists, 40.4 per cent of barbers and hairdressers, 40.9 per cent of [illegible] 44.1 per cent of boot and shoe factory hands, 48.2 per cent of [illegible] and printers, 41.2 per cent of tailors and tailoresses died of the same disease in the same area in 1900, [illegible] victims of pulmonary tuberculosis

THE MAY CO

SOUTHERNERS ANGRY

No Welcome for Taft at Columbus, Ga., Because Stop Is so Short.

COLUMBUS, Ga., Oct. 21.—Following a heated discussion the Columbus board of trade by an overwhelming vote tonight tabled a resolution providing that the board meet and formally welcome President Taft when he arrives here November 3. This action is due to the fact that the President's party is scheduled for only a 10-minute stop here.

On three occasions a committee representing the board of trade visited the President and invited him to visit Columbus. When assurances were given that the President would include Columbus in his southern itinerary, preparations were at once begun for an elaborate entertainment. When the schedule of the trip was issued showing a 10-minute stop here, indignation was aroused, culminating in tonight's action.

RUSSIAN LABORERS COMING TO HAWAII

HONOLULU, Oct. 21.—The steamer Siberia today brought 48 Russian families, composed of 218 members, to work on sugar plantations. Since Japanese employes of the planters went on strike several months ago there has been a scarcity of laborers. The importation of Russians resulted from a trip made to Harbin by Immigration Inspector Atkinson. Atkinson reports that thousands of Russians are anxious to come to the islands. It is believed that there will be a heavy immigration of subjects of the czar.

MENTAL HEALING A FACT, SAYS DIVINE

DETROIT, Oct. 21.—Mental and religious healing was one of the most prominent topics today at a minister's meeting held as a preliminary to the biennial convention of the Universal church which begins tomorrow. Rev. R. F. Johonnet of Chicago assumed there was such a thing as mental healing. The real basis for mental healing he said lay in the fact that the mind did have a certain supremacy over the body. Anxiety and fear, he declared, had taken more lives than war or pestilence.

Constipation And Appendicitis

The Latter Usually Caused by the Former, Which, in Turn, Has Its Origin in Intestinal Indigestion

Chronic constipation is a disease which is about as prevalent as dyspepsia and indigestion. Nearly every one suffers from it occasionally but there are millions of people who endure it habitually and who are accustomed to resort to the use of laxatives and cathartics daily.

Many people seemed to have developed a perfect mania for taking pills and instead of trying to ascertain the latent cause of the disease, and removing it by appropriate treatment they are content to continue the reckless use of laxatives, aperients, drastic cathartics and violent purgatives, until finally inflammation of the bowels occurs which reaches the appendix, and the result is appendicitis.

In investigating and tracing the causative factors of constipation and its frequent sequel, appendicitis, it has been noted by physicians that the majority of cases were preceded and accompanied by a long-standing gastro-intestinal indigestion.

The idea that appendicitis is brought on by foreign bodies, such as seeds, etc., becoming lodged in the appendix, is an exploded theory. It is now definitely known that constipation is the most prolific cause of this dread disease while the constipation itself is previously induced by intestinal indigestion, or amylaceous dyspepsia—the inability to digest starches—so the relation between cause and effect is readily seen and appreciated.

The absurdity of attempting to cure constipation by the use of physic should be apparent to every one. Laxative drugs and powerful purgatives will never cure a disease of this sort, and those who make frequent or regular use of them will, sooner or later, set up an inflammatory condition of the intestinal system.

A person with first-class digestion will never be annoyed with chronic constipation, and when this trouble does exist, instead of slugging the system with pills, liquid laxatives, candy cathartics, etc., use a remedy which will cure the gastro-intestinal indigestion, and you will find that the constipation no longer bothers you, and with its removal, the risk of developing appendicitis will be reduced to the minimum.

STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS have been the means of curing numerous cases of constipation, by first curing the intestinal indigestion. They digest every kind of food, a single grain being capable of digesting 2,000 grains of alimentum, and in addition to pepsin and other powerful digestives, they also contain diastase, which cures amylaceous dyspepsia and intestinal indigestion.

If you are suffering from dyspepsia, constipation, and, in fact, indigestion of any kind, don't run the risk of getting appendicitis, but strike at the root of the trouble, the original cause, by using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which will quickly rid you of all functional disorders of the alimentary tract.

Secure a box of this digestive remedy from your druggist for 50c and send your name and address to the F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich., for a free sample package.

TWO IMPLICATED

Believed Triple Murder Near Kansas City Was Not Work of One Man.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 21.—The finding of another bullet hole in the body of Alonzo Van Royer, one of the victims of the triple murder near Kansas City, Kansas, yesterday, convinced the police tonight that two men committed the crime.

Mrs. Van Royer was shot three times and her sister, Miss Rose McMahon, six times. Van Royer was shot four times.

The firing of 13 shots, the police say, makes it obvious that one man did not do the killing. The police searched the tenderloin districts of both Kansas Cities tonight. It is said arrests are expected soon.

GUATEMALAN PRESIDENT BELIEVED RESPONSIBLE

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Oct. 21.—It is said believed here that President Cabrera of Guatemala is responsible in a measure if not entirely for the revolution at Bluefields as he has been supporting it with expeditions from Puerto Barrios and other places. Advices state that a steamer on its way to Guatemala to get war supplies has been seized by authorities of Honduras. No decisive engagement between revolutionists and the government forces has been fought. The Nicaraguan government has many troops at El Castillo and Managua but heavy rains are impeding active operations.

NEW MINISTRY OBTAINS ASCENDANCY IN SPAIN

opposition and the execution of Ferrer followed by popular demonstrations of disapproval brought matters to a crisis.

When parliament reopened the Liberals, Republicans and Socialists bitterly assailed the government but the cabinet showed a disposition to fight for its life. There was a violent scene in the chamber of deputies yesterday when the opposition headed by Senor Moret Prendergast the former premier renewed its attack upon the government.

Minister of the Interior La Cierva, declared that the ministry would not resign under threats.

It was then believed that while Senor Moret determined to unhorse Premier Maura the Liberals as distinguished from the Republicans and Socialists did not desire to assume power as under the circumstances they would then become responsible for the expenditures involved in the war in Morocco.

ROME, Oct. 21.—The vatican did not expect the fall of Premier Maura, believing the energy he displayed in reestablishing order at Barcelona and other affected points would bring him sufficient strength to retain the premiership and complete the work which he had undertaken. The vatican, however, is most reserved with regard to the change in the Spanish government, and declares the making or unmaking of cabinets in Spain is none of its affairs.

DEAD MAN POSED AS DIVINE HEALER

and worked in Denver as a shoemaker some years before he became known as a healer.

DENVER, Oct. 21.—Francis Schlatter, the "divine healer," whose preaching, accompanied by apparently miraculous cures, created a profound sensation through the west, came to Denver from New Mexico on September 16, 1895. While stories of his reported powers had preceded him, they were not given general credence until his demonstrations in this city.

During his stay here, Schlatter was the guest of former Alderman E. L. Fox, and addressed his audiences and performed his cures in the front yard of the Fox home. He remained here only a week, but before the end of that time the railroads were bringing trainloads of sick, halt, lame and blind to Denver to have Schlatter heal them by laying on of hands. So great were the throngs that many erected tents near the Fox home to await their turn with the healer. Schlatter never wore coat or hat and took no money from patients he was supposed to have healed.

It is believed by many who knew Schlatter here that he died in the deserts of New Mexico in 1897 and that the identity of the body found was fully established.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 21.—According to local records, the man found dead in Hastings is Charles McLean, who has posed in various places as Francis Schlatter, who succeeded about 20 years ago to the reputation of Francis Schrader, the first "divine healer" of wide repute.

Shortly after Francis Schrader's death, a man of similar appearance and methods, calling himself Francis Schlatter, began traveling about the country, claiming to heal the sick and afflicted by divine power.

In May, 1908, a man believed to have been McLean appeared in St. Louis with a much younger man calling himself "Schrader." The older man posed as "Schlatter." The two tried to collect money to finance them in carrying on "divine healing."

McLean was arrested in Des Moines last June on a charge preferred by a citizen of Clinton, Iowa, that he had taken away a large sum of money intrusted to him for use in his healing work. He had posed in Clinton as Schlatter. In his ragged clothing, when arrested, he had $755 and three diamonds valued at $200 each.

"Schlatter" and "Schrader" appeared in Los Angeles last winter, and announced that they had established the kingdom of the new Jerusalem on a South Sea island and were going to convert the world.

The real Francis Schlatter had a "divine healing" office in Hot Springs, Ark., two years ago.

NAIROBI, Oct. 21.—Colonel Roosevelt, Edmond Heller and R. J. Cuninghame, the hunter and guide, returned to Nairobi from Naivasha today. Kermit Roosevelt and Leslie Tarlton have gone to Nakuru where they will spend a few days shooting before joining the other members of the party here. The expedition will leave on Monday for the Guasongusho district.

According to the present plans the party will return here from Guasongusho and in November hunt in the region of Njoro with Lord Delamere. On December 15 the expedition will proceed to Uganda, arriving at Gondokoro February 15 and continue on to Khartum where according to the schedule the party should be on March 1.

Judge Lindsey finally succeeded in demolishing the door, but too late to save her life.

GUGGENHEIM DIVORCE TANGLE UNIQUE CASE

Annulment Proceedings Abruptly Postponed Sine Die After Three Days' Argument.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The suit seeking annulment of the divorce granted Grace B. Guggenheim from William Guggenheim eight years ago, in Chicago, closed abruptly today, when Judge Honore indefinitely postponed the hearing.

When Judge Dunne, in 1901, granted the divorce, Mrs. Guggenheim's testimony showed she was a resident of Illinois. Mrs. Guggenheim claims recently to have discovered her testimony was in error on this point. The matter was laid before Mr. Dunne, who is no longer on the bench, and he, declaring that fraud had been practiced on the court, and the people of the state outraged thereby, filed a petition for the annulment of the divorce.

Attorney William Seabury came from New York to represent Mrs. Guggenheim and Judge Dunne, while the smelter magnate had as counsel Samuel Untermyer of New York.

This array of lawyers, scrutinizing innumerable court records, discovered the case to be unique. Not a precedent was to be found. Arguments continued for three days, punctuated by heated clashes among the lawyers, Judge Honore meanwhile observing that they "were getting nowhere." The question whether he had jurisdiction was as far from solution as ever today, and the court's "indefinite postponement" order was taken as a way out of the dilemma.

Judge Honore stated that Mrs. Guggenheim's only remaining recourse is to file a bill herself alleging that she obtained her divorce by fraud. One attorney is authority for the statement that such action would be futile, as the Illinois statutes provide that five years is the limit for proceedings of this kind and that the case, therefore, was outlawed.

ONCE PRIVATE SECRETARY TO TAFT, GETS 5 YEARS

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—When Ralph H. S. Whitney, a well-appearing young man, came up for sentence on a forgery charge today, his attorney surprised the court by declaring his client belonged to a well-known Boston family and had once been private secretary for President Taft. Nevertheless Whitney was sentenced to five years' imprisonment and Grace Maidhof, who said she came from California, was given three years for the same crime. Both had confessed. Whitney addressed the court for an hour on the girl's behalf, but in vain.

MURDERS MAN, THEN COOLLY PHONES WIFE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 21.—H. H. Cooper today shot and fatally wounded Dewey A. Wallace, a real estate dealer of this city, and then held at bay a large crowd attracted by the shooting until an officer arrested him. Cooper shot Wallace three times. A dispute over financial matters is said to have caused the trouble. After being taken to police headquarters, Cooper, with no show of excitement, telephoned his wife information of what he had done.

NONPARTISAN FIGHT

Campaign Managers at Gotham Each Predict Large Majorities for Their Men.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—With New York's municipal election only 12 days distant, the campaign today reached the stage of hopeful forecast and optimistic estimates. These were the "probabilities" estimated by campaign managers for the three candidates for mayor: Bannard (Republican), by 40,000; Gaynor (Democrat), by 75,000; Hearst (Independent), by 80,000.

The confidence expressed by all the campaign managers was pointed out by many observers tonight as a further indication of the nonpartisan character of the support upon which the candidates depend and of the breaking down to a great extent of party lines in the consideration of New York's municipal problems.

LABOR WANTS EQUAL PLACE IN CABINET

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—That the vast body of wage earners in this country may have one of its representatives in the President's cabinet, labor leaders have decided to wage its fight with renewed vigor before Congress to obtain legislation to establish a department of labor with a secretary co-equal with secretaries of other departments. This question was the foremost topic before the executive council of the American Federation of Labor today. That body authorized the preparation of a bill which will be introduced soon after it convenes.

MAYBRAY GANG MEMBERS TO IOWA FOR HEARING

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 21.—In the United States court today an order was signed for the transfer to Iowa of the Marshalltown, Ia., Carroll, Bert R. Shores, Ira Bert Warne and Wesley S. Harris, alleged members of the Maybray gang of wrestling swindlers, indicted in Nebraska and Iowa for having used the United States mails to defraud.

MEN KILLED WHEN MINE GAS IGNITES

HARTSHORNE, Okla., Oct. 21.—Ten men are dead, two are injured and one is missing as a result of an explosion in mine No. 10 of the Rock Island Coal Mining company, early today. Nine bodies were recovered.

The men are believed to have gone beyond a "dead line" with lighted lamps, which ignited escaping gas. The fact that Dan Hughes, a sub-boss, was with the other men, suggests the theory that the men were arranging the air courses to carry out the gas when one or more of the men passed over the "dead line."

Hughes was alive when taken from the mine, but never regained consciousness.

LORD HAS BEEN GOOD TO TEXAS, SAYS TAFT

people. It is taking this on because everything that the farmer produces is most expensive to buy. He gets the highest prices today that he ever has in the history of the country, and, therefore, everyone who is looking forward to making a decent living is considering the question whether he has in him the elements of a good farmer, for there is no doubt that, taken as a class, the farmers are the most contented, the best situated, have the best homes and the best prospects of any class in the country. You are bound to make this whole southeast Texas the garden spot of the entire state.

"I am glad to see that the largest building in the town of Taft is the school house, and where the school house is the most important building you can be very certain of several things.

One is that there is no race suicide where they need so large a school house, and the second is that they are looking forward to the education of their children, that they may become good men and women and good citizens. The school house is the basis of our civilization, and it is most gratifying to see that "Taft" is keeping up with the procession in that regard, and has room enough to teach all the children that can be born under the favorable skies of southern Texas.

My friend, Mr. Green, tells me that, unlike a good many other towns in Texas, I received all the votes there were in the town of Taft. I want to return my thanks to my fellow citizens who were willing to break the Texas record and bring in one little ewe lamb. I thank you sincerely.

RASMUSSEN STATEMENT VALUABLE, SAYS COOK

Considers Opinion That He Discovered Pole Important—Not Personal Friends.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 21.—That the statement of Knud Rasmussen is a valuable aid to the establishment of proof of his discovery of the North pole, was Dr. Frederick Cook's comment here today. Rasmussen's statement was that Dr. Cook's claim is fully borne out by the information which the Danish explorer secured among the Eskimos.

Dr. Cook read the statement when he stopped in Toledo between trains on his way from Ann Arbor to Canton. He said Rasmussen's opinion is valuable because he is half Eskimo, speaks Eskimo, and understands the people.

"The statement is from a man who had no occasion to defend me," said Dr. Cook. "He is not particularly a friend of mine and he had no relation to our expedition. I first met him at North Star in 1907. He gathered his information from the Eskimos before he heard from me that I had discovered the North pole. I saw him at Eggeademind early in August last for a few minutes, when I first told him of the discovery, although he may have heard of it previously from the Danes."

REMOVE RESTRICTIONS ON CATTLE AND HIDES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Secretary Wilson today notified the treasury department that Great Britain, Ireland and the channel islands and North America, including Mexico, are so far free from contagious or infectious diseases of animals that cattle therefrom may be imported without danger to live stock in the United States, and that hides of neat cattle may be imported from all parts of the world under proper sanitary regulations. The department accordingly has suspended the prohibition in the new tariff law against neat cattle and their hides, providing, however, for the necessary sanitary regulations of the secretary of agriculture as to the cattle and the treasury department as to the hides.

PRESBYTERY ABSOLVED FROM HERESY CHARGE

JOHNSTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 21.—The consideration by the Presbyterian synod of the state of New York of the heresy charge preferred against the presbytery of New York in connection with the ordination of the Rev. Archibald Black ended late this afternoon when the judiciary committee of the synod reported sustaining the presbytery. The investigation showed also that, while the first examination of the candidate awakened grave doubts as to views on certain fundamental doctrines, subsequently he cleared away doubts in the minds of the majority, and they were satisfied that his doctrinal views conformed substantially with the word of God and the standards of the church.

EARTHQUAKES IN SICILY

CATANIA, Sicily, Oct. 21.—Several strong earth shocks were felt today. They were more pronounced at Acireale, on the slope of Mount Etna. The people ran out of their houses and camped in the open air. Ten houses fell in the outskirts of Acireale but only one person was killed. Walls of many houses were cracked. The whole Mount Etna region was severely shaken.

ITALIAN SLAYER OF CHILDREN TO DIE

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 21.—Theodore Rizzo, on trial since Monday on the charge of murdering Theresa Porcopio and Freddy Infusino on September 12, today was convicted of murder in the first degree. Justice Rogers set the week of November 21 as the time for his execution. The convicted man was taken to Auburn prison tonight. The testimony which had a large bearing on the outcome was given by Fanny Infusino, 6 years old, one of his victims, whom he left for dead.

STEALS WHOLE BARN

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Oct. 21.—A thief possessed unlimited assurance seems to be at work in this vicinity. Some time ago two small buildings used for store houses were carried away on a wagon from the rear of a store where they stood. The climax came last night when thieves carried off a large barn, two acres of fencing valued at $50 and a ton of coal from a ranch near here. No trace of the stolen property has been found.

Just a Few Doses Will Regulate Your Out-of-Order Kidneys

A real surprise awaits every sufferer from kidney or bladder trouble who takes several doses of Pape's Diuretic. Misery in the back, sides or loins, sick headache, nervousness, rheumatism, pains, heart palpitations, dizziness, sleeplessness, inflamed or swollen eyelids, lack of energy and all symptoms of out-of-order kidneys simply vanish.

Uncontrollable urination (especially at night) smarting, offensive and discolored water and other bladder misery ends.

The moment you suspect kidney or urinary disorder, or feel any rheumatism, begin taking this harmless medicine, with the knowledge that there is no other remedy, at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which will effect so thorough and prompt a cure as a fifty-cent treatment of Pape's Diuretic, which any druggist can supply.

It is needless to feel miserable and worried, because this unusual preparation goes at once to the out-of-order kidneys and urinary system, distributing its cleansing, healing and strengthening influence directly upon the organs and glands affected, and completes the cure before you realize it.

THE WHITE RIBBONED ARMY OF TEMPERANCE

W. C. T. U. HAS ACHIEVED WONDERS.

Influence and Activity of Women's Organization of Public Service in Many Ways.

By Frederic J. Haskin.

The White Ribbon reigns supreme in Omaha today. The occasion is the gathering of the strongest association of women in the world—the Woman's Christian Temperance union in national convention. With 10,000 branch societies, and a total membership of nearly 200,000 devout and devoted women, the W. C. T. U. exerts a potent influence in the social and political life of the United States. Delegates from every state and territory are attending the Omaha convention, each wearing the knot of white ribbon which is the badge of membership, and each earnest in her desire to advance the temperance cause for the sake of, as the association motto has it, "God and Home and Native Land." There are no revolutionary plans to be discussed at this meeting. Its organization is so perfect, and its machinery so well oiled, that the W. C. T. U. justifies its policies by results. The rank and file of its membership is content to continue operation along the lines already laid out.

The W. C. T. U. was organized in 1874, as the outgrowth of the great temperance revival which spread over the country in the early seventies. For many years it seemed to make little progress in accomplishments, although its growth in numerical strength was steady. But the women at the head of its affairs were not discouraged, and they kept on with their work with indefatigable industry and long-suffering endurance. Now it claims a large share of the credit for the triumph of its ideas reflected in the prohibition and antisaloon laws which have converted such a large portion of the country into "dry" territory in the past few years.

It was the W. C. T. U. which induced the authorities to teach in the public schools the principles of temperance and the deleterious effects of alcohol, establishing the scientific temperance propaganda through the study of physiology and hygiene. The W. C. T. U. also secured the incorporation of specific temperance lessons in the International Sunday school lesson series, and induced the churches to dedicate one Sunday in the year to be known as the world's universal temperance Sunday.

In the past seven years the W. C. T. U. has been, according to its leaders, the determining influence in securing the passage of fifty laws of public interest, and the defeat of an even greater number of bills which they regarded as against the interests of public morality. The union has secured more petitions to legislative bodies than any other organization in the world. One of these monster petitions is known as the Polyglot petition, which bears so many names that if it were made on a single strip of paper it would be 40 miles long. More than 20,000,000 persons have attached their signatures to temperance petitions circulated by the W. C. T. U.

In addition to its crusade in behalf of temperance, the union has been a leader in efforts to secure the enactment of laws for the protection of women and children. It has also started a campaign of education in favor of a single standard of morals for both men and women. It has exercised a weighty influence in the movement to secure laws prohibiting and regulating child labor. What it has done nationally it has also done on a world-wide scale through the world's W. C. T. U., which is a federation of all the women's temperance organizations throughout the world. Lady Henry Somerset was once president of the world organization, as was also Miss Frances E. Willard.

Busy All Over World.

In far-away India there white ribboners are as busy as they are in England, Canada or the United States. In Germany they have induced the government to direct the giving of temperance lectures to the sailors aboard the ships of the imperial navy. This was the first time in the history of any navy that such an attempt has been made to reach the jackies in the interest of temperance, and it is claimed that increased sobriety bears witness to the success of the undertaking.

Miss Willard was for many years the president of the organization in the United States, and her name always will be revered by the members of the union as their greatest captain. Miss Willard died before the fruition of her labors had become evident, but the organization is still working along lines she mapped out. Miss Willard is the only woman distinguished by a statue in the federal capital. A life size figure in white marble represents her delivering a temperance lecture. It stands in the statuary hall of the capitol, and was presented to the nation by the state of Illinois.

The W. C. T. U. directs its chief efforts, of course, against the use and sale of intoxicating beverages. It opposes the use of alcohol absolutely, on the theory that it is impossible to be moderate or temperate in the use of what is regarded a physical and moral poison. Its chief arguments are along moral and hygienic lines, but in recent years it has also directed attacks upon the saloon on economic grounds.

Good Ammunition.

It is said that there is a billion dollars invested in the liquor business in the United States. According to zealous friends of the W. C. T. U. the nation's annual drink bill amounts to almost two billion dollars a year. As this is more than three times the estimate made by business men, it is probable that zeal has led to some exaggeration. However, it is asserted that the figures upon which the business estimates are based are wholesale prices, and that the drink bill is paid in retail prices. Under any estimate the figures are large enough to furnish the W. C. T. U. with good ammunition.

It is said that even after the powerful crusade that has been carried on against the saloons, there are still 14,000 more of them in the United States than there are churches. It is also stated that for every missionary the United States sends abroad there goes also 13,000 barrels of intoxicants. The total amount spent in civilized countries for drink is said to be ten times greater than that spent for all literature, including newspapers and magazines.

One of the union's chief arguments is that the abolition of the saloon results in an economic saving of vast benefit to the community. In some portions of the country, notably the south, the women have converted many leading business men to their views of this phase of the liquor problem. But in a great part of the country the belief still persists among opponents of prohibition that it injures business.

For Strict Enforcement.

Nearly half of the people of the United States live in "dry" territory, where the sale of intoxicants is prohibited by law. These laws are enforced with varying degrees of stringency, but everywhere the W. C. T. U. is fighting for strict enforcement. In the southern states 25,000,000 people live in a saloonless territory. The liquor question is now the most acute political issue in every state in the country west of the Alleghenies and south of the Potomac, and the W. C. T. U. claims responsibility and credit for making it so. The union has accomplished the greater part of its work through the distribution of literature. The publications of the organization number high into the hundreds, and in many parts of the country every newspaper has a W. C. T. U. department through which the women preach their doctrine to the public. Many newspapers now boldly advocate prohibition.

The W. C. T. U. as a national organization seeks to avoid entangling alliances with political parties or other outside influences, but locally the unions are not so exclusive. They have been very active in factional politics in many states, and they have gone so far as to boycott dry goods stores which refused to advertise in prohibition newspapers.

Growth of a Century.

The temperance movement in its modern manifestation is the growth of a century. Last year the various temperance organizations celebrated the hundredth anniversary of the first public movement in this direction. In 1808 Dr. Billy Clark, a physician of Moreau, Saratoga county, New York, reached the conclusion that the human system was subject to irreparable injury from the prolonged use of intoxicants. He organized "The Union Temperance Society of Moreau and Northumberland." In those days whisky was as free as water and earnest evangelists preached the gospel with a "drap of the cratur" handy on the rostrum. The ministry of the evangelistic protestant churches was first to take up the movement, which gained great impetus during the third decade of the last century. It soon reached the stage of prohibition, and in 1864, under the leadership of Neal Dow, the state of Maine went "dry." It has remained so, in a technical and legal sense, ever since that time.

Other New England states followed the example. Even New York went for prohibition, but the supreme court decided the law was unconstitutional. Horace Greeley in the New York Tribune led the great newspaper fight for prohibition, but it was swallowed up in the slavery controversy. It was in those days that the word "Maineac" was coined to apply to the prohibition advocates, who promptly retorted with "saloonatic." The later word is still used in liquor question campaigns. Soon after the Civil war there was another wave of prohibition sentiment which reached high tide about 1888. Then there was a temporary cessation of the crusade until about seven years ago when the present wave began to sweep over the country. The opponents of prohibition declare that this wave also will recede. The W. C. T. U., the Antisaloon league, and kindred organizations declare that it will not do so, and base their contention upon the economic phases of the controversy.

Whatever one may think of the wisdom of the prohibition movement, it is impossible not to accord the W. C. T. U. a high place in the social and political life of the country. Its influence has been nation-wide, and it has accomplished much more than its leaders and founders dared to hope when they began their work. Whatever one may think of their judgment and discretion, it is impossible not to admire their courage and devotion to the cause which they believe is right.

I adopted the following prescription will work wonders for that great class of men who through dissipation of their natural strength find themselves in their second childhood long before the three score and ten allotted to life's pleasures and enjoyments are reached.

It is presumed to be infallible, and highly efficient in quickly restoring the "nervous exhaustion" weak vitality melancholia and the functions.

First get fifty cents' worth of compound fluid ballmwort in a one ounce package and three ounces syrup sarsaparilla compound take home, mix and let stand two hours, then get one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce tincture cardamene compound (not cardamom). Mix all in a six or eight ounce bottle, shake well, and take one teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring followed by a drink of water.

By mixing it at home no man need be the wiser as to another's shortcomings and expensive fees are avoided.

FINNISH SITUATION IS CAUSING DISMAY

Society at Czar's Capital Alarmed Because Guardsmen May Have to Go.

ST PETERSBURG, Oct. 21.—The threatening situation in Finland has spread dismay in St. Petersburg society owing to the prospect of the officers of the crack regiments of the guard being called upon to pass the winter in the bleak barracks of the cantonments of Finland instead of participating in the gayeties attending the return of the court to this city.

There have been no orders issued for the dispatch of troops to Finland beyond those already on the way to the grand duchy, according to an officer of the staff, but word has passed to the officers of seven elite regiments to hold themselves ready for a winter campaign.

LAKE IS CRATER OF SUBMERGED VOLCANO

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Reports of curious phenomena in a crater lake on Bogoslof island, Bering sea, were confirmed today in a report received by the treasury department from Captain V. E. Jacobs, commanding the Bering sea revenue cutter fleet. Captain Jacobs reports the existence of belching steam jets in the lake, while at only one place around the islands could soundings be found. The observations tend to show that the lake is the crater of a submerged volcano.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT WARRANTS ATTEMPT

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MEETING TODAY.

Definite Decision to Go After International Dry Farming Congress Is Likely

It is understood that at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this morning announcement will be made that the special committee on securing the next convention of the International Dry Farming congress has secured sufficient financial support to enable it to go after the convention in earnest Associations throughout the state will also aid this city to land the convention

Word came last night from the convention of the Colorado State Realty Dealers association, now meeting in Greeley, that the association had just pledged itself to support Colorado Springs' candidacy If any of the delegates present at Greeley go to Billings, as is probable, they will do all in their power to boost this city

The executive committee of the Merchants association yesterday appointed John Lennox as a delegate to the Billings meeting, and pledged the support of the merchants of the city in the movement to land the congress

The fact that the convention occurs in October would be of immense benefit to Colorado Springs, for the tourist season would be extended thereby so much longer The railroads would undoubtedly extend their rates to November 1, making the tourist season last from June to November

It is probable that the delegates from this city will leave either today or tomorrow in order that they may be at the Billings meeting in time for the first session Although there may be some changes, the committee as first named will probably be appointed as delegates

JURY FREES PREBISICH IN DISTRICT COURT.

Prosecution Scores Defendant's Attorneys in Closing Address Privett to Be Tried Today.

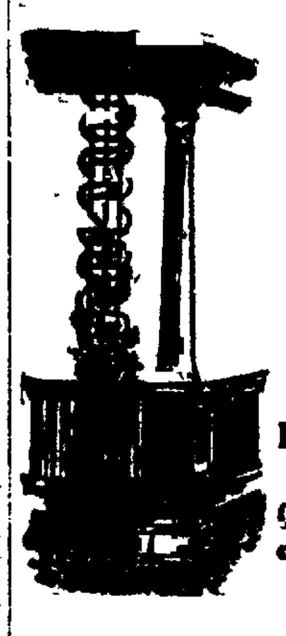

Milan Prebisich is a free man

Last night the jury in the district court after being out three hours, acquitted him of the charge of conspiracy in the salting of ore samples at the Golden Cycle mill in West Colorado Springs last spring Prebisich who is a Russian by birth, based his defense on the plea that he was not a lessee of the Favorite mine ore samples from which were salted by Hicks Davis in the Golden Cycle mill

The closing argument yesterday afternoon of Judge E C Stimson of Denver, who aided Assistant District Attorney M W Purcell in the prosecution of the case, was a most brilliant oratorical effort Attorneys for the defense were attacked by stinging sarcasm, called forth by their contemptuous references to the state's witnesses, and to the prosecution

Judge Stimson made a strong effort to establish direct evidence of Prebisich's connection with the lease He claimed that Prebisich, while working for wages as an ordinary laborer, had a working interest in the lease which was held last spring by John W Privett

Privett will be arraigned this morning to answer to the same charge as that preferred against Prebisich. Merrifield and Stewart have already been convicted. The Davis brothers, both of whom have confessed, will be tried as soon as the Privett case is ended

Colorado and Southern Only Completing Survey for Possible Use in the Future.

The report that a corps of engineers in the employ of the Colorado & Southern railroad has begun surveying work looking to the immediate construction of a line from this city to Denver was officially denied in the latter city last night The surveyors are here for the purpose of looking over the ground in case it should ever become necessary to build a line paralleling the Santa Fe

The lease by which the Colorado & Southern uses the Santa Fe line expires next August, but a renewal for a period of 10 years has been obtained, so that no necessity exists for the immediate construction of a new line. The fact that the Colorado & Southern may decide to build a line in the distant future, coupled with lack of engineering work in other sections of the state resulted in the sending of the surveyors here at this time to complete work begun before the Santa Fe lease was renewed

IS YOUR FAMILY READING "WORTH WHILE?"

So much of current reading is merely entertaining at best that the question naturally arises is it worth while? Your sons and daughters are bound to read something They hunger for stories which take them into the other half of the world—the world of adventure of valor of fortune-making The problem is to give them such reading without putting into their hands the literature that is either silly or demoralizing The editors of The Youth's Companion believe that a periodical can be made entertaining and yet "worth while," and that is one reason why more than half a million American families read it The paper is safe, but not dull Its tales of adventure illustrate the advantages of fortitude and self-reliance Its stories of character lay stress on the truth that right conduct is never a mistake

Every new subscriber will find it of special advantage to send at once the $1 75 for the new 1910 volume Not only does he get the beautiful "Venetian" calendar for 1910, lithographed in thirteen colors and gold, but all the issues of The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1909 from the time the subscription is received

CHARLES M. FICKERT,
Opposing Heney for District Attorney

SAN FRANCISCO Oct. 19. The fight for district attorney is attracting much attention here on account of the prominence of the two candidates. William H. Langdon is the present incumbent, and it was through his appointment of Francis J. Heney as assistant district attorney that so much woe was brought to the grafters. Heney is now out to succeed Langdon. He was nominated by the Democrats at the recent primary election. The Republicans chose Charles M. Fickert and the fight is a strenuous one.

Fickert is a well-known attorney and served at one time as assistant United States district attorney for the northern district of California.

What the Press Agents Say

OPERA BIG MUSICAL TREAT.

One of the season's biggest musical events will be the engagement for two nights of the International Grand Opera company, at the Opera House, Monday and Tuesday evenings "Lucia and Faust" will be sung on the respective nights This is the largest group of vocalists now appearing in an opera company on tour It brings the roster of the organization up to one hundred Italian singing prima donnas tenors baritones and bassos One of the most important features is the large orchestra of competent musicians under the direction of Signor Vinaccia The company includes the famous sopranos Mme. Therry, Norelli Donner, Strauss Zarad and Bari Colombini Sundioff, Giuliano, the noted tenors also Arcangeli, Zara, baritones, Cervi, Otero, bassos, Frascona, Di Giacomo second baritones, Mlle Williams and Kaplan, second sopranos.

Seats are now selling at the Opera House at the following prices. $1, $1.50, $2 and $2.50 These prices were made possible only by the fact that the company plays two nights here.

Covent Garden, London, which has proved either the artistic throne or tomb of many operatic aspirants, received Jennie Norelli with enthusiasm when she made her debut as Gilda. Melba, long an idol of the British public had been billed to appear the night that Norelli made her bow, but indisposition on the part of the older prima donna afforded the newcomer her opportunity, and when the final curtain fell on the somber scene with Rigoletto alone with the hideous bag which held the murdered body of his beloved daughter, Jennie Norelli had scored a big triumph To substitute for a singer like Melba, is a severe test, but Norelli, brave and prepared for it, conquered and won the fight Naturally, after such artistic victories in London and France New York wanted her Mme Norelli came to America the year after her last season in London The late Heinrich Conreid heard her sing and immediately engaged her for the Metropolitan Opera house, and here she repeated her European successes." —From the Musical Courier.

RACCHANATIAN DANCE,
From the Original Panel. Reproduced by the Stanley-Edwards Co., at the Majestic This Week.

MRS. LESLIE CARTER TONIGHT.

Mrs. Leslie Carter will bring to the Opera House tonight a much stronger supporting company than she has previously provided herself with en tour. There are two very important male stars in the new play, "Vasta Herne," which was especially written for her by Edward Peple, who also wrote "The Prince Chap," and which she will present tonight One of these is the character of the physician, played by John Glendenning, and the other is that of a prosperous publisher in the able delineation of E. J Ratcliffe. The engagement of these two most eminent actors by Mrs. Leslie Carter is a fine exhibition of her heralded generous policy in the making of her own productions under her own management

Mrs. Carter plays only one night here at the following prices 50c, $1, $1.50 and $2.00. Good seats may still be secured at the box office

It will be interesting to contrast the work of Mrs Leslie Carter, our foremost exponent of emotional art upon the stage, tonight at the Opera House, when Mrs. Carter will introduce "Vasta Herne," her new play as Edward Peple, and appear as a strong type of woman of the present day for the first time here. Will the departure from the style of woman she has portrayed in "Du Barry" and "Zaza" prove a boon to her art or will it take away any of the triumph created in her former characterizations? That is the question which confronts the famous actress as well as interests her hosts of admirers here in this city, just now Many express the opinion that she has chosen wisely and will profit by the new departure.

MRS. LESLIE CARTER,
One of the Foremost Actresses on the Stage, Who Comes to the Opera House This Evening in "Vasta Herne"

GYPSY VIOLINIST GREAT FAVORITE AT MAJESTIC

Usually, when the manager of a vaudeville house engages a vocal or instrumental soloist, it is with some trepidation lest the performer may not, either by personality or technical skill, strike the fancy of his or her audience But if the management of the Majestic [illegible] in having heard Defrey, the gypsy violinist, play before engaging [illegible] any such fear it proved [illegible] Defrey has proved [illegible] greatest musical hits every shown in this city, and by the compelling beauty of his violin playing has shown himself to be one of the strongest features of an unusually strong bill

Defrey has shown himself to be a genius, but not of the kind whose work appeals only to the critical master and wins praise for perfect technique He is one of those greater geniuses who can reach the heart of the public, who can bring forth from their instrument tones and melodies that awaken a responsive note in the souls of all upon whose ears they fall. The selections he offers reveal something more than the artistic temperament, they reveal the human sympathy and understanding that is esential to all truly great musical effort.

Every audience that has heard Defrey at the Majestic this week has called him back again and again, and each time he has made his final bow it has left his auditors thirsting for more Just one little feature of this number is worth going miles to hear. Defrey gives on the violin an imitation of a little tiny girl reciting "Mary Had a Little Lamb," and were he concealed from the audience one would almost believe that it was not an imitation, but the real thing. That sounds incredible, but so is Defrey's mastery of the violin.

VAUDEVILLE AT FAIRYLAND

There's a vim and go about the present bill at Fairyland that is decidedly refreshing. The vaudeville acts are top-notchers, and the motion films the best seen here for many weeks.

The Great Mack, slack-wire artist and comedy juggler, introduces some rare feats in equipoise and agility. But he also displaces the not unusual stunt of disrobing on a slack wire by one infinitely more difficult While poised on this exceedingly unstable support, he transforms his costume from that of the gymnast to one of complete street dress, including collar and tie.

"A Change of Heart," a real biograph treat, while tugging at our heart-strings shows there is true manliness in even the worst of men, if rightly appealed to Hart and Woodley, the comedy sketch team, don't waste a minute. Their dialogue is bright and snappy, and their dancing not often outdone.

The intensely dramatic film, "The Trappers," gives us a glimpse of the rugged life of the wood men. The action is graphic and fascinating. This hand-painted film portrays a drama of throbbing interest from start to finish.

The new Fairyland orchestra has added not a little to the prestige of this cosy little playhouse, and their musical programs will become more and more a feature. The illustrated song brings merited applause at each performance.

"This big bill is only a starter," says Manager Tracy. He has many comforts planned for his patrons, besides aiming to continually improve wherever possible the excellence of the entertainment offered. "Fairyland is going to be truly a 'live one' this winter," he says, and, judging from last night's program, which is continued until Saturday we must agree with him.

Charge of Physician Against Officials in Hawaii Declared to Be Baseless.

HONOLULU Oct 21.—United States Circuit Judge Debolt has given the federal grand jury a special charge concerning the case of Dr John Atcherly confined in the asylum for the insane Dr Atcherly, who claims to have discovered a cure for leprosy and has a large native following, charges that his incarceration is the result of a conspiracy inspired by the jealousy of physicians

The matter was called to the attention of members of Congress who visited the islands recently but they declined to take action

Upon the request of Judge Debolt the grand jury convened immediately and after a short session declared that the charges of conspiracy made against a number of federal and territorial officials by Dr Atcherly were unworthy of serious consideration

THE GROWING DIVORCE EVIL.

A BULKY octavo volume entitled "Marriage and Divorce, 1867-1906," which has just been issued by the Census Bureau, contains a showing-up of the divorce evil in this country that is truly startling. The volume is marked "Part I," so we infer that a further study of this important question is yet to issue from the Government Printing Office, but as Part I contains a complete summary of divorce statistics for the forty years ending with 1906, together with the divorce laws of all American states and statistics for all other civilized countries, it is complete enough to supply almost any information on this subject that will be desired.

First, it is noteworthy that the divorce rate in the United States is increasing steadily and rapidly. Glance at this table.

Period of Yrs.	Total Number.	Divorces Inc. over preceding five years. Number.	P. C.
1902 to 1906	332,642	71,922	27.6
1897 to 1901	260,720	65,781	33.7
1892 to 1896	194,939	37,615	28.9
1887 to 1891	157,324	40,013	34.4
1882 to 1886	117,311	28,027	31.4
1877 to 1881	89,284	20,737	30.3
1872 to 1876	68,547	14,973	27.9
1867 to 1871	53,574

In 1870 the number of divorces per 1,000 married couples was about 1½; in 1880 it was 2; in 1890 it had increased to 3, and in 1900 to 4. No wonder that careful students of social conditions declare the divorce evil to be one of the most serious dangers to American civilization.

DIVORCES IN EL PASO COUNTY. The population figures used in the report are based on the census of 1900. At that time Colorado was rated as having 539,906 population, and the annual average number of divorces from 1898 to 1902 was 846, or 159 per 100,000 population. This is a decrease in the number of divorces since 1890, when, with a population of 404,748, the average number of divorces for the period 1888-1892 was 715, or 177 per 100,000. For 1880 the figure is given as 136 divorces per 100,000 population in Colorado, and in 1870 it was 60.

Further examining the Colorado statistics we find that El Paso County is credited with 31,602 people in 1900, and 92 divorces. This is at the rate of 291 per 100,000, or almost double the average for the entire state. Moreover, in 1890 only 30 divorces were granted in El Paso County (less than one-third the number in 1900) and the ratio was 141 per 100,000 population, or less than one-half the ratio of 1900.

It is therefore apparent that in this county, making due allowance for the increase in population, divorces were more than twice as prevalent in 1900 as in 1890, and further, that they were just about twice as prevalent in this county as in the State at large. If the popularity of the divorce courts has increased in the same ratio in the last nine years, an investigation at the present time would show about 200 divorces a year in this county.

THE EVIL AND THE REMEDY. When we reflect especially on the steadily increasing number of innocent children whose lives are clouded, perhaps permanently blighted, by the prevalence of divorce, this showing is simply hideous. But what is the remedy and how is it to be applied? It is easy enough to decry an evil, but thus far nobody has been able to suggest a thoroughly practical and adequate means of relief. Some advantage would be gained by adopting a uniform divorce law which would be country wide in its application, instead of the conflicting hodge-podge of legislation on this subject that now encumbers the statute books.

Some of the grounds on which divorce is now granted are trivial and therefore vicious in their effect. The laws ought to be made more stringent, but there are two sides to this, as to every other question, and nothing is to be gained by making divorce so hard to obtain that people will be compelled to remain in the married state when it means only abject misery for one or both.

The English law is often criticised as too stringent but nevertheless it is vastly better than ours and might well be used as a model in drafting new divorce legislation for this country. It recognizes only one ground for absolute divorce, but provides for legal separation with maintenance for the wife, if desirable, but without permission to either party to contract another marriage. Without doubt there are cases where this law works a hardship, but these are relatively few, and even if they were many times more numerous the effect would not be as bad as has been produced by some of the absurd laws in effect in America.

IT DOES.

"A CORRESPONDENT who signs his (or her) letter, 'A Subscriber,' D. S., writes: Kindly answer in the editorial section your opinion on, 'Does religion make a better man?'"

It does. There is no doubt about it. Look about you and observe the men whose lives are best worth imitating, whose lives are most successful judged by other standards than that of mere money-making. Without exception they are the lives in which religion exercises the controlling influence. [illegible] men, [illegible] our [illegible] term, but it is not a matter of sex, for the same conclusions apply with equal, or greater, force, to women. The best life, the most useful, most satisfying life, is the one that finds its directing motive in the Christian religion.

This has nothing to do with creed or sect, and still less with the higher criticism. Whether our questioner attends one church or another makes little difference, for if he sincerely seeks the Truth he will find it, and if he accepts it when found it will make him "a better man." This is so not merely because the Christian religion is the finest system of morals ever devised, but because in addition it supplies the spiritual food for which every human soul hungers, whether the mind realizes it or not. A code of ethics is good as far as it goes, but it does not constitute an effective, working religion. Christianity supplies both the ethical code and the lofty spiritual element which combined make it the religion of the heart as well as of the mind. Judged by the severest of all tests—time and results—it stands alone. For nearly twenty centuries it has made better men, and therefore a better world. Compare the Christian world of today with the old pagan world, or the Christian nations of today with the non-Christian lands, and the question is answered. Or better still, compare the helpful, unselfish, broadly useful life of the true Christian with the life of the average non-Christian, and the answer is even more emphatic. Religion does make a better man.

THE PUEBLO Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN.

THE campaign to raise $100,000 for a Y. M. C. A. building in Pueblo is progressing most favorably. Seventy thousand dollars has been pledged up to date, and with only three working days left the committee of business men is working night and day to complete the full amount by 10 o'clock Monday night.

It has been a source of great regret to those interested in the Y. M. C. A. work in Colorado that there has not been a building in Pueblo long before this. But owing to the failure of the Association in years past to do its work in rented quarters there was created an atmosphere that together with poor business conditions has made it difficult to arouse the people to the great service a Y. M. C. A. building, well equipped, would render to the young men of Pueblo. Through the efforts of the State Committee and several loyal friends of the work in that city, steps were taken some months ago to arouse an interest sufficiently intense to have the citizens enter upon a building campaign in earnest. The great needs of the boys and young men were placed before the people, and especially it was shown how the large foreign element would receive inestimable benefits from an up-to-date Association. Several conferences were held with the business men and others interested in the welfare of Pueblo, with the result that the date from October 11 to 25 was fixed in which time an effort would be made upon the part of all the citizens to raise $100,000 with which to build and equip a building.

The subscriptions already made come from all classes and show the widespread interest in the work. The success of the campaign now seems assured, and when the announcement is made at 10 o'clock Monday night that the goal has been reached a new day will have dawned for Pueblo. There will be a new meaning to the word character as applied to her boys and young men, and a new realization on the part of Pueblo's business men that a God-fearing citizenship is their greatest asset.

PINCHOT: A MILLIONAIRE WITH A MISSION.
From Current Literature.

Gifford Pinchot has become something more than a passing incident. He stands for a big idea—the conservation of our public resources—as no other man, with the possible exception of Senator Burton of Ohio, stands for it in the public eye. He is a man with a mission, and he has succeeded in enlisting in his mission two Presidents, forty-six governors and a very considerable part of both houses of Congress. "I want to say here," said President Roosevelt, at the opening of the historic conference of governors in Washington, "that if it had not been for Gifford Pinchot, this conference never would or could have been held." If a man is to be measured by the size of his mission—and what better way is there of measuring him?—Pinchot has become one of the largest men in our public life.

When he graduated from Yale about twenty years ago, where he won high honors on the athletic field as well as in the class room, young Pinchot was a millionaire, with a world of pleasure before him to be had for the asking. He threw in his lot, however, with the toilers and builders. He imbibed from his father a love of forest culture and he determined to make a specialty along this line.

TEMPERANCE IN CONSTITUTIONS.
From the New York Globe.

The preprospective states of Arizona and New Mexico should take anxious pains to paste the President's advice in their headwear. And they should refer to it from time to time in a spirit of humble thankfulness. The President has advised them to be temperate, mild, and abstemious, and when they come to write their constitutions to be guided by knowledge of the truth that brevity is the soul of good sense.

The uproarious constitution of the state of Oklahoma—encyclopaedia of political impedimenta as it is—has weighed heavily on the President's mind. As long ago as August 1907 when he delivered his keynote speech at Columbus, he regarded it as neither fish nor fowl, but a foreign substance that defied analysis by any but a Bryan expert. And he has never been able to get along with it.

We could hardly stand another such constitution, and as it rests with Congress to decide whether or not new states shall be admitted Arizona and New Mexico may be supposed to have something more than a theoretical interest in the advice that is given them. And, withal, what an opportunity they have to instruct in temperance those old and dissolute commonwealths that have been so much given to the exuberance of constitutional alterna-tion.

PLAIN DUTY IN THE COOK CASE.
From the New York Tribune.

The career of Dr. Cook and his [illegible] as an explorer has now reached a new phase. A charge of the gravest kind is made against him, not by a more or less exasperated rival at long range on the dubious hearsay word of savages, but on the sworn testimony of an American citizen who was in his employ and who was his companion in his former notable exploit. The charge is that Dr. Cook did not go to the top of Mount McKinley as he claims to have done, that he did not get within some miles of the summit, and that to bolster up his pretensions he falsified diary records and took a fake photograph. It may be added that there have been [illegible] various expressions of doubt as to the truth of Dr. Cook's story about the ascent of that mountain, but this is the first time that an explicit and a responsible denial of it has been made.

It must be obvious to Dr. Cook and his friends that such an accusation cannot be ignored, nor can explicit repudiation and disproof of it be postponed a moment longer than is necessary, without the creation of a deplorable impression upon the public mind. In the matter of the North pole there has already been a delay, with an air of jaunty and complacent indifference, amazing to the public and disquieting to those who wish to see Dr. Cook fully vindicated. A similar attitude toward this latest accusation while Dr. Cook is diligently pocketing box office receipts and accepting honors of all kinds, would be embarrassing to his friends, compromising to him and humiliating to the American nation.

The truth about the Mount McKinley episode is, happily, more easily and promptly susceptible of demonstration than that of the North Pole expedition. Dr. Cook says that he left records at the top of the mountain. If so they are there now, and can be found by the next explorer who goes there. If it is humanly possible somebody ought to go there at the earliest possible opportunity. Dr. Cook himself ought to be eager to lead a party to the spot. If that is not done then the man who makes this grave charge should be eager to lead a party to that easy half-way resting place at which the alleged "fake" photograph was taken. For either party at this stage of the case to falter or delay to make good either the claims of great achievement or the charges of almost inconceivable turpitude would be nothing short of scandalous. Men of honor, not to say of common honesty, surely cannot call each other liars and imposters, or suffer themselves to be thus called, and then do nothing more about it.

The laws are numerous as flies upon a summer day; at making laws the statesmen wise still pound and pound away. No man on earth could recollect a list of all the laws; I tried it once—my mind is wrecked, and now you know the cause. Some gents who are in prison yet proclaim with angry shout that they are so with laws beset, they really can't stay out. "A man can't walk around a block," I heard a sad man wail, "but what the cops will round him flock, and chuck him into jail." I heard the butcher man repine, and weep, and rail at fate, because he had to pay a fine for being short on weight. I heard the corner grocer snort, and use some language sour, because they yanked him into court for selling moldy flour. The milkman bottled half the creek, and sold it on his route; he said: "The law just makes me sick," when friends had bailed him out. The laws are numerous as scales upon a fish, no doubt; and so some people are in jails, and simply can't stay out; but all the time and everywhere one great truth stands out clear: The man who acts upon the square, has nothing much to fear.

The Daily Chit-Chat

Competition, as everyone knows, was never keener than it is today.

The professions and trades, especially those open to women, were never more crowded.

But even now there's one place in every profession and trade where there's always plenty of room—and that's at the top.

A girl whose parents wanted her to study stenography came to me the other day complaining that she did not want to be a stenographer because she knew a great many girls who had worked for years for ten and eight and even six dollars a week, and she didn't think that was enough.

"Yes," I answered, "so do I, but I also knew quite a few who got $20 and $25 and even $30 a week."

"But there are so few places of that kind," she protested.

"A great many more than there are girls to fill them," I assured her.

And then in answer to her look of incredulity I told her of a talk I once had with a man who hires hundreds of stenographers every year.

"It's easy enough to get plenty of ten and twelve-dollar girls for the lower positions," he said; "the trouble is to get the $20 girls. You know we have a good many responsible positions and we need that kind of girls to fill them, but you've no idea how hard they are to get. Of course, we can train some of the lower-priced girls, but not near enough. Why, last year we sent to Washington (the firm has its headquarters in Boston) for a girl to fill an important position, simply because we could not get one any nearer home.

"I can tell you there's a mighty good opening anywhere for the girl who wants to make herself something more than a mediocre stenographer."

And not only the girl who wants to make herself more than a mediocre stenograpraher, but for the girl who wants to be more than mediocre at anything.

It's the same, for instance, in teaching. I once heard the head of a teacher's agency say that it was the $1,000 and $1,230 positions that he had the most trouble in filling.

"It's economy to pay high and get good men," is the slogan of most of the progressive business firms.

It is a good thing if you have an aptitude for any of them to enter some of the less crowded professions. Or, if you have the capital and ability, it is good to take up some business that has not yet been extensively exploited.

But if your aptitude and the circumstances make it better to enter some more common and more crowded profession or business, don't be willing to be less successful on that account.

Only go into it remembering that there's plenty of room at the top and making up your mind always that that room is for you. RUTH CAMERON.

We hate to dig up for coal because we get nothing but warmth out of it and have to burn it up to get even that.

But clothes supply the warmth, make up most of our appearance, enable us to display good taste and to enjoy fine fabrics, good designing, and the craftsmanship of master tailors.

But if it be merely a matter of warmth or service with a man, he may cut out the fine art in clothes, and get a warm serviceable suit at $15 or $18, and still be dressed in good taste—if he buys his suit here.

GINGERY WORK OF TIGERS INSURES AN EXCITING GAME WITH ARMY TOMORROW

TIGERS.		ARMY.
Steele, Roe	center	Kelley.
Reichsmuth, Hedblom, Roe, Thompson	guards	Westervelt, Anderson.
Cary, Morrison	tackles	Chegwa, Short.
Sinton, Copeland, F. Morrison, Putnam, Sherry	ends	Knight, Johnson, Duford.
Vandemoer, Whittaker	quarter	Nolan.
Field, Wilson	halves	Bond, Rattlburn,
	full	Heyl.

This is the probable lineup for tomorrow afternoon's opening college football game at Washburn field. The officials will be Lieutenant Shute, referee, Walter Nead, umpire; E. A. Rosenfelt, head linesman.

Judging from reports sent out from the Army camp at Fort Russell, and the manner in which Captain Cary's striped pets walked over the scrubs and High School Terrors in practice at Washburn field last night, tomorrow's game will be one of the biggest football affairs of the season. The teams will be about equal in the weight proposition, the Army averaging 175 pounds, and the Tigers carrying practically the same amount of weight.

Putnam played a smashing game at quarter last night, and showed good judgment in driving his team against the Cutlers and Terrors. F. Morrison is doing some good work at end, and will probably be tried out in this position tomorrow. Cary and Dick Morrison are playing their usual steady game at tackle.

The Cutler Scrub curtain-raising affair at 2 o'clock will attract a big crowd. Both teams have good material, and the Cutlerites are expected to hold their college opponents. The Tiger-Army game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Manager S. W. Kittleman of the Tigers has arranged to handle a big crowd. A new section has been added to the east side bleachers, and everyone attending the game can secure a good seat. The field is in good condition, and, with favorable weather, the attendance should be a record breaker.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—James J. Jeffries, who is on board the liner Lusitania, which reached Sandy Hook at midnight, will arrive here early tomorrow. VESUVIUS ACTIVE NAPLES, Oct. 21.—Mount Vesuvius is again active. Quantities of stones were thrown up today, falling inside the crater. The ejection was preceded and accompanied by detonations. This is considered the most serious eruption of Mount Vesuvius since 1906.

ELECTRICITY CAUSES BUT FEW FIRES

Simply because Benjamin Franklin associated electricity with lightning, and that most people are more or less afraid of lightning, electricity is believed to be a dangerous factor in fire hazards. This is not true, for it has been proven time and again that electricity causes less fires than a number of the other things about the house or office.

Last year nearly five thousand fires were reported in the city of Chicago. A careful record was kept of the origin of these fires and the result showed that only about one per cent could be laid to electricity. Only one fire was caused by lightning and thirty-seven by electric wires. Of course the causes of most of these fires were unknown, but the careless use of matches caused 164 fires in 135 days, stoves, chimneys and flues caused over three hundred; fifty-two were incendiary, spontaneous combustion caused 51; gasoline 46; thawing waterpipes 43, explosion of gas 38, gas jets 36, oil lamps 35.

A STRANGE WILL

From the Albany Journal.

London Baroness von Eckhardstein has become rich overnight through the strange provision giving 240 out of the 365 days each year in England. These terms are contained in the will of her father, Sir John Blundell Maple, the great London house furnisher, who died five years ago worth $10,750,000. He left the residue of his estate after legacies had been paid in trust for his daughter, one half of the income to be paid her for five years on condition that she live 40 days each year at least in the United Kingdom. After the five years she was to receive the whole of the income on the same condition, so that she has now come into possession of the entire income of the estate.

HIVE ON MOUNTAIN TOP

Colony Makes Hundreds of Pounds of Honey 12,000 Feet in Air.

From the New York American.

SEATTLE, Wash. High above the timber line on the great round top of Mount Rainier and not 100 feet from the line of perpetual snow, a colony of wild honey bees has chosen an exposed diminutive cavern in a pile of granite rocks for a hive. The bees were discovered by Christian Hansen and Osmond Dailey, two Seattle young men who were climbing to the summit of the mountain.

Hansen observed a honey bee crawling over an ice rock and called the attention of Dailey to it. They pried open the rock pile and dislodged an enormous colony of bees. The busy workers attracted likely by the masses of mountain flowers in the valley of the mountain, had made several hundred pounds of white honey.

A WOMAN TO PROSPECT FOR SILVER.

From the New York Press.

To the man who has the wanderlust there are few better ways of spending a vacation than in tramping around a country where gold or silver may be in the ground. The land of precious metals often is the land of pure air and fine scenery, and these attractions, combined with the chance of a strike that may bring riches, are fascinating to the average man. But that this fascination should inspire a woman to take a hard journey through wild mining country, is unusual. Mrs. Howard Perry, wife of a Philadelphia lawyer, is probably the first woman who ever chose such a trip by way of holiday, and old-time prospectors are smiling at her plan. They are confident she will drop it as soon as she sees the hardships. Mrs. Perry proposes to leave her husband, who is unable to stay away long from his professional duties and strike out into the Cobalt and Cowganda mining regions of Canada. She will take with her a regular camping outfit, a woman companion and several guides. Then, by canoe, along the great pine forests she will go through a country rarely visited by man. At points where indications of silver deposits are found her party will halt and prospect. Mrs. Perry may spend all summer this way. "The only thing short of death that can change my plans," she says, "would be the discovery of a silver mine."

Speaking of Nickels

And November, here is a unique proposition in quality values.

Step to your newsdealer with a nickel and buy a November number of THE LADIES' WORLD.

Of course you know about THE LADIES' WORLD but have you ever realized how really great it is as a home magazine?

Take your November LADIES' WORLD home and study it from every side.

Then try to think of some other magazine at twice the price that gives as much real interest value to you.

You will read the story of the beloved Henry Ward Beecher.

"Worth the price of the magazine," you will say.

You will become absorbed in Charles G. D. Robert's fine serial beginning in this issue.

"That's worth the price, too."

You will find an article on the health of children that will be a surprise to you and a great help.

The article on dressmaking, that bears particularly on the coming winter's needs, you will find peculiarly pertinent.

"Each worth the price," you will repeat.

And so from cover to cover you will find the quality—the class—that you generally expect to pay two or three nickels for.

It is pleasant to make a discovery like that, isn't it?

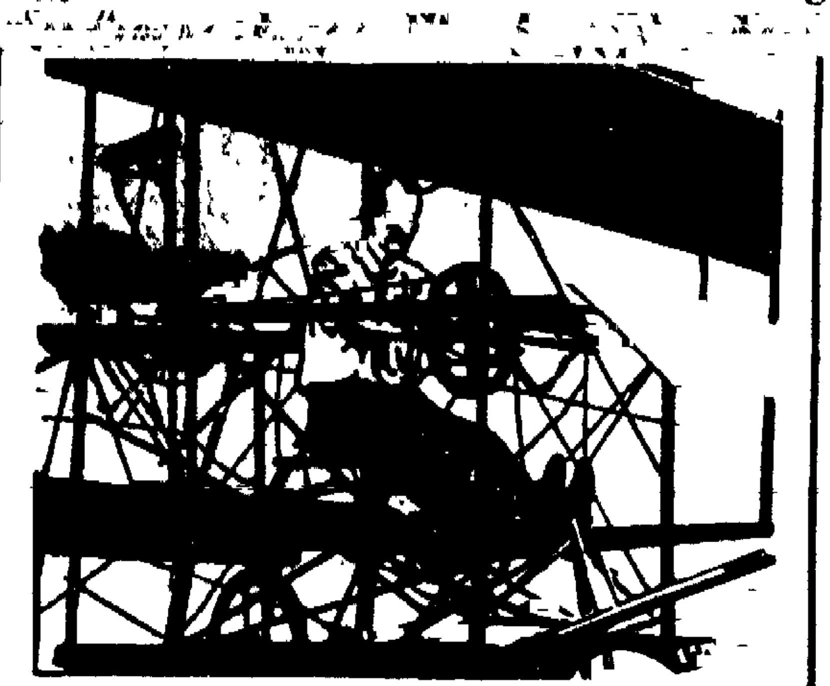

Three million readers have discovered it already and now they "can't keep house without THE LADIES' WORLD."

The November number is looking at you from the news-stand now. Perhaps you prefer to study it for a year fifty cents to

SMELTING ORE FROM EAGLES MAIN SHAFT

Leasing Company Sends Out 30-Ton Shipment From Newly Opened Shoot.

Special to The Gazette.

ALTMAN, Colo., Oct. 21.—A 30-ton shipment of smelting grade ore, estimated at from four to six ounces gold to the ton, was loaded out yesterday from the American Eagles main shaft on the summit of Bull hill, by the Colorado Mines Investment company, operating the mine under lease from the Stratton estate.

The ore was mined from a new shoot recently entered at the eleventh level east of the shaft on the main Eagles vein, and near to the Findley line. The quartz is reported full of sylvanite and high values obtain from selected specimens.

In addition to the work carried on by the original lease holding company, sublessees are at work in the different levels, and Love and company, operating a block of ground on the second level, will make a shipment of two-ounce ore today. These sublessees are mining their ore from a shoot under development on the Bankers-Grouse vein.

PROVISIONS HIGHER AND GRAINS DECLINE

Several Factors Bear Market in Cereals and Falling Off Is General.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Grains closed lower today, wheat and corn at no time going as high as yesterday's final figures. Provisions advanced uniformly, ribs making a gain of 17½c.

Wheat opened weak, but the downward trend was stubbornly contested and December at the close was unchanged at ⅛c lower at $1.04⅝. May sank on the final figures ⅝@¼c below yesterday. The big bear factor was a weakening of cash wheat prices in the southwest, coupled with a larger run of western hard winter wheat. Lower foreign cables, induced by free offerings of Russian and Argentine wheat, and an advance in the Bank of England discount rate bore down on the local market.

The bulls were encouraged by the firmness of cash wheat here and the milling demand in the northwest. Northwest mills in the week just passed made an increase of 100,000 barrels in the flour output and are credited with being sold up to February.

The bullish efforts bore fruit at the close when earlier losses were recovered. The corn pit today reversed the bullish movement of yesterday and profit-taking sales kept the quotations declining for a time. Resting orders absorbed the offerings at the low point of the day and prices then steadied. December closed ½@⅝c lower than yesterday. The oats market dropped off sharply at the outset. Later partial recovery developed. December, May and July each closed ⅛c lower than yesterday.

Provision market: October lard took a sharp jump up in the early trading, advanced 22½c. Closing prices ranged from unchanged to 15c higher for pork and 2½c to 7½c higher for lard, to unchanged to 17½c higher for ribs.

MONEY CONDITIONS ARE EXTRAORDINARY

Bank of London Raises Discount Rate to 5 Per Cent, Figure Barely Reached.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The attention of the financial world was focused on the Bank of England today by a third weekly advance in the official rate of discount a full 1 per cent to 5 per cent. On October 7 the rate was but 3 per cent, after having stood at 2½ per cent since the first of April. Today's 5 per cent rate therefore represents a rise of 2½ per cent, doubling the bank rate in two weeks. Such drastic action is rare except in panic times and must be accepted as an indication of extraordinary conditions.

On October 31, 1907, the rate was raised to 5½ per cent from 4½ per cent in response to the banking panic which had broken out in New York. On November 4 following, the rate went to 6 per cent, and on November 7 to 7 per cent as the result of the acute demand from New York for rescue purposes. A closer parallel to the present situation will be seen in the occurrences of the fall of 1906, when the bank raised its rate to 4 per cent on September 13; to 5 per cent on October 11, and to 6 per cent on October 19. The protective measures in that case were directed against the New York borrowing and the raid of London's gold supply which was pushed through the medium of American finance bills floated in London.

That the present action of the Bank of England is directed in part against New York's speculative borrowers is affirmed in news advices from London and is indicated also by the heavy selling of American securities for London account which is forced by the measures of the English bank.

These were again in heavy volume today and were attributed to the closing out of loans in London in which these stocks figured as collateral. United States Steel was the most notably affected by this cause, although none of the stocks which have figured recently in the active speculation were entirely exempt from this pressure. Today's rise in the English rate was aieeted by a sharp drop in the Berlin exchange on London, although all other exchanges, including our own, moved strongly in favor of London. In New York the advance in sterling exchange was so violent as to give rise to calculations of the possibility of gold exports within a short time.

The New York money market did not share in the sensational action of foreign money markets today, the call loan rate holding at 4½ per cent as a maximum, yielding to below that. The recovery in the stock market was encouraged by the tranquil tone of the local money market. There was evidence also of the requirement from an uncovered short interest in stocks, left from the operations in anticipation of the advance in the English bank rate. In United States Steel especially there were signs of an aggressive turn against the short interest. The vigorous strength shown by Wabash preferred, even in face of the early weakness of the market, made it the subject of conjectures of a part in another railroad deal. The covering movement by the shorts made the closing tone strong.

Bonds were easy. Total sales, par value, $2,762,000.

U. S. bonds, 3s registered, declined ⅛, the 4s registered ¼, and the 4s coupon ¼ per cent in the bid price on call.

CHANCE FOR LAND INVESTOR

Going at $3.75 Per Acre

Square section of 640 acres in eastern part of Elbert County, the rainbelt of Colorado, where crop failures are unknown.

Of course, at the price you would not expect this land to be all smooth, but it is not so rough as you would judge the price to indicate about half of it being smooth, farm land, and best of soil; the balance as fine pasture as you ever looked upon.

The first man to see it will be the one to buy it at $3.75 per acre.

Go with me November 3rd, and I will sell you this fine land for from $6.50 to $10.00 per acre and give you easy terms.

No where in the states can you buy such land at such prices.

Will you investigate now while OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS at your door? If so call or write for literature.

RUMMAGE SALE by Pioneer Twenty of First Congregational church, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 29, 30, at 127 E. Huerfano

BURNING LEAVES—Anyone burning leaves or other material within the city limits, is liable to fine for misdemeanor, unless special permit has been obtained from the Mayor.

THE Woman's association of the First Universalist church will meet this afternoon at 2:30 at the residence of Mrs. Edward Tobinson, 117 South Corona. A good attendance is requested.

CARD PARTY—Mrs. W. B. Barthel of 411 East Bijou street entertained a few friends at five hundred last night, in honor of her guest, Miss Bessie Murray of Kansas City. The gentleman's prize, a box of cigars, was won by O. V. Wilson.

ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP—Those desiring to become active members of the Colorado Springs Musical club are requested to send their names to Miss Frances Rouse, 1411 North Nevada avenue. Information concerning the requirements for membership will be furnished by Miss Rouse.

WANT MAGAZINES—The county commissioners are anxious to have all the old magazines and periodicals which they can obtain for use in the convict camp south of town. The convicts, 67 in number, have nothing to do after dark, and the magazines would be appreciated both by the convicts and the commissioners.

PUBLIC COMFORT STATION—A public comfort station will probably be built in connection with the new federal building. The station will be under the sidewalk and entrance will be from the building. Commissioner J. A. Himebaugh has been negotiating with the government for permission to build the station under the building.

PLAY USUAL PRANK—The usual joke on the Colorado College sophomores was sprung when the Hallowe'en bonfire pile at Washburn field was lighted and burned shortly before daylight last Wednesday. The sophomores are swearing vengeance on the unknown miscreants, but will have an even bigger bonfire than originally intended, and the celebration promises to be the most successful in the history of the class.

WEDDING TRIP—George B. Kennard, ticket clerk in one of the Pennsylvania railroad stations in New York, was in the city yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Kennard are on their way east from the coast, where they have been on their wedding trip. They will leave for Cripple Creek today, and will shortly continue on their way home.

TRIES FOR SCHOLARSHIP—Albert Ellingwood of the Colorado College senior class was one of the three young men who took the qualifying test in Denver, Wednesday, for the Rhodes scholarship. The Oxford university authorities will report on the papers in January. Ellingwood is a graduate of the local High School and an unusually good student. In 1908 he won the Perkins scholarship for men.

Swept Over Niagara.

This terrible calamity often happens because a careless boatman ignores the river's warnings—growing ripples and faster current—Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the Kidneys need attention if you would escape fatal maladies—Dropsy, Diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see Backache fly and all your best feelings return. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1.00 bottle wholly cured me," writes J. R. Blankenship, of Balk, Tenn. Only 50c at all druggists.
